WEALTH IN SACK.

Bank Books and Records of Estate Found in Meal Bag.

White Plains, Nov. 6.—The will of Jere M. Lyon of Bedford, in the northern part of Westchester county, was filed yesterday with Surrogate Frank V. Millard at White Plains. Mr. Lyon, who left property worth $100,000, kept all his bank books and papers in a meal bag which was found after his death. In the bag was also a wallet filled with four-leaf clovers. The merchant was a great believer in the theory that there was good luck in four-leaf clovers, and he had been accumulating them for a lifetime. The wallet contained more than 600 of them.

By his will Mr. Lyon leaves $30,000 to his wife, Mrs. Susan B. Lyon, and 75 per cent. of the net portion of the award and interest to be paid to him by the city of New York for land taken by the city for its cross river reservoir.
Mr. Lyon sought about $75,000 for his property from New York City and an award was made for a much smaller amount, which he refused to accept. This was several years ago and the matter has been in the courts ever since. The remainder of his estate goes to other relatives.

ABOUT THE STATE

Harry G. Kinsman of Norwich was married last Thursday evening to Miss Charlotte Burton of Upper Alton, Ill.
The bride's wedding gown was made of her mother, Mrs. Joseph Burton, who is 85 years old. Mrs. Burton bought the gown and made every stitch of the gown with her own aged fingers.

At the special election of aldermen in ward three of St. Albans, made necessary by the resignation of W. H. Lundy, John H. Keenan, Democrat, was elected to fill the vacancy. Two ballots were necessary, there being no less than 17 candidates voted for on the first ballot. On the second ballot Mr. Keenan received 14 votes.

A large attendance is expected at the meeting of Vermont coal dealers at the Berkshire house, Rutland, next Wednesday. A social feature of the meeting which will open at two o'clock in the afternoon, will be a dinner to be served at six. The New England and Eastern and Central New York associations will be represented.

Of Windsor county's 1,898 miles of highway, 281 miles were selected for permanent road work this year. The county's share of the permanent highway fund from the state was $12,031.
Nineteen of the 21 towns made special appropriations to entitle them to an additional share of the state fund, the total sum voted being $5,000. The whole amount voted for state road work last year was $25,001.53. Windsor county ranking first among the 14 counties in Vermont in the amount so spent.

TOO COLD FOR PARADE.

Payment of Election Wager Has Been Postponed Until Weather is Warmer.

Of all sad words of tongue or pen, The saddest are these, it might have been.

Several weeks ago, while the Taft and Bryan campaign was comparatively in its infancy, T. P. O'Brien and Elbert Summerville consummated a rather odd wager. If Bryan lost Mr. O'Brien was to wheel Mr. Summerville in a wheel-barrow up Church street, headed by the Sherman band, and if Taft lost Mr.
Summerville was to perform the same stunt. Bryan lost, as everybody now knows, but the wheelbarrow sketch was not acted for lack of stage settings, proper scenery and other reasons.

The word was waited about town yesterday that there was to be a parade instead and that all of Mr. Summerville's friends were to ride in state, while the band played "Marching Onward, Ever Onward" and "There's a Hot Time a Comin' Bye and Bye." It was so cold last evening that the band men were afraid to use their wind instruments for fear that the notes would freeze and wander down the back alleys and the parade be taken for a funeral—Burlington Free Press, Thursday,

OPPOSES LICENSE.

Brattleboro Man Writes About The Hunters License Matter.

Dr. George F. Barber of Brattleboro contributes the following letter on the deer hunters license:

"From late reports it appears that the resident gun license microbe is about to stalk the legislature. Should be succeeded in slinging that august body with any effect we would all like to know what is to be done with the money so raised. There isn't a mature gunner in the state who would object to the amount suggested for a license if there was any good to be derived from such an act.

One advocate of the measure, when asked what he would do with the money, shouted at the top of his voice: "Buy some birds." Now quail will whistle about during the summer and fly south during the winter. If we should have an open winter and they would entirely disappear. That they would be gone for good and not looking practically feasible he was asked what next, and replied, "Then buy partridge," meaning grouse. Now here can anyone buy grouse? There isn't a state in the Union that has as many at it wants, or a state that would permit anyone to catch and sell grouse.

This being explained our friend decided on phoning the New England make any claim that pheasants will not thrive in Vermont, but I think it quite safe to say they will not unless they are looked after very carefully and fed often during the winter, but they have been a failure in most localities. As the bird business did not look particularly rosy he finally decided he would expand the money for trout. Now what sense is there in thus taxing the gunner, who may not care to fish and never goes fishing?

The small thing about this bill is the position in which it places the small boy. There are many families of boys ranging from 10 to 15 years of age who have an old shotgun that didn't cost more than $4, and they can't afford anything better. It takes all the spare cash now to raise money enough to buy their ammunition. With the old gun they get out now and then and have a grand good time.

I lived on a farm once and had just such an old gun. Well do I remember, when digging potatoes with one eye on the woods, how my heart fairly pounded when my father, who knew how keen I enjoyed the sport, would say as I sight grew near, "You may go now." Mind you I didn't have more than an hour, but that hour every few days helped to make the hum-drum life of farming much pleasanter. One young man older than myself killed seven grouse one season. How I did envy that chap.

Now, mister advocate of gun license, are you going to be one to rob the small boys of Vermont of this little pleasure and drive them out of the state when you have your auto, your finely trained dog and the best gun money can buy? Before you start out on any such small piece of business you take this same rig I have pictured and go out to the best shooting grounds you know of and sit down and smoke, and while you are doing so try to get an interest in something more sportsman-like.

TO KILL THE DANDRUFF GERM.

The Only Possible Way of Having An Effective Cure.

If you see a woman or a man with luxuriant glossy hair, you may be sure that her hair dandruff is not due to anything but Newbro's Herpicide. In nearly every case where women men have thin brittle hair, they owe it to dandruff. There are hundreds of preparations that "claim" to cure dandruff, but not one but Newbro's Herpicide tell you that dandruff is the result of a germ burrowing into the scalp, and that permanent cure of dandruff and its consequent falling and baldness, can only be had by killing the germ; and there is no other preparation that will destroy the germ but Newbro's Herpicide. "Dandruff no cure, and you remove the effect."
